

THE COUNTY CONVENTION AND GOP DELEGATE PROCESS

by Heidi Clinger & The CCRP C3 (Communications & Community Relations Committee)

In past presidential election years, many of us have watched the televised National Republican Convention. We've heard a proud Nevadan say something like, "Nevada, the Silver State, nominates {name} to be the President of the United States!" Have you ever wondered, "How did that person get there?"

The process starts at the Nevada Republican Caucus. On February 8, 2024, over sixty thousand Nevada Republicans met in precincts throughout the state. In many precincts, delegates were elected to represent their precinct at a county convention.

The Clark County Republican Convention will be held on March 16. Along with other business, delegates will be elected to represent the County at the Nevada Republican Convention.

The Nevada Republican Convention will be held in May. Along with other business, delegates will be elected to represent the State of Nevada at the National Republican Convention.

The National Republican Convention will be held on July 15-18 in Milwaukee, WI. Along with other business, delegates will elect the Republican Presidential Nominee for the November election. Each state (including Nevada) has rules on how delegates will be committed to vote for candidates.

Other business includes updating or amending the Party Platform, Bylaws and Rules. It can also include other business relevant to the organization holding the convention.

What you should know. If you are currently a member of the Clark County Republican Central Committee (CCRCC), your membership will expire at the March 16 County Convention. To renew your membership or become a new member you have two options:

1. Attend the Clark County Convention on March 16 as a Delegate, OR
2. Attend two subsequent CCRCC meetings and be voted in by the membership. These meetings are held every other month.

Am I eligible to become a County Convention Delegate?

If you meet any of the following requirements, YES!

1. You participated in your Precinct Meeting at the Caucus and signed up to be a delegate;
2. You were a Caucus Volunteer, Precinct Captain, or Caucus Captain;
3. You are a Republican elected official or an announced candidate for public office;
4. You cast a ballot in the Presidential Preference Poll but did not remain for your precinct meeting.

If you meet any of these conditions, congratulations! You are officially eligible to become a County Convention Delegate! Simply purchase your Convention ticket here.

Additionally, you may also be eligible to attend the Convention as a delegate if you made a good-faith effort to attend your caucus but were unable to do so due to time constraints, weather conditions, or other exigent circumstances. If you were unable to participate for any of those reasons, please follow the instructions below:

- 1. Purchase your Convention ticket here.
- Please complete the following affidavit for review by the Convention Credentials Committee to confirm your eligibility: clarkcountyrepublicanparty.com/delegate

The Credentials Committee will review your affidavit, and if approved, will assign you temporary status as an "Alternate" Delegate at-large, allowing the body of the Convention to affirm your status as a full Delegate to the convention.

PLEASE NOTE! You must purchase your Convention ticket by March 13 to retain your Delegate status! Do not lose your opportunity to continue supporting Republicans! Once you have purchased your ticket, please keep an eye on your inbox for additional convention details, including information about the Platform, Agenda, and other business to be conducted at the convention, which will be sent in the coming weeks. We'll see you on March 16!

DO YOU WANT TO GET INVOLVED BUT NOT SURE HOW? GRASSROOTS IS WHERE THE ACTION IS. GRASSROOTS IS AT THE PRECINCT.

As part of a precinct team, you will work in your neighborhood encouraging others to vote. Working as a precinct captain or volunteer involves only a few hours a month and can make a real difference in November. You will learn how to effectively engage with others on important election issues.

You will also learn how to organize others just as concerned about the future as you are. Your Community NEEDS you. Join us now!
